Selking International Trucks Scholarship

(through the Adams County Community Foundation - ACCF)

This application is for students applying for the ACCF / Selking International Trucks Scholarship.

This scholarship opportunity is established in 1965 by Reinhard (Reiney), Mariann Selking, their son Jerry and his wife Wanda, Selking International Trucks has grown considerably in the past 53 years. Reiney passed away in 2016 and today, Reiney's four sons (Jerry, Jim, John, and Joe) are all involved and share in the ownership of the company.

The company shifted their focus from their agricultural base to the transportation industry in the 1990's and has since evolved into Selking International and Idealease. Selking International Trucks now has Seven locations in Indiana (Decatur, Muncie, Ft. Wayne, Elkhart, LaGrange, Richmond & South Bend), one in Michigan (Monroe), and two in Ohio (Toledo and Bryan). Taking care of their customers and their employees has remained their ingredients for success.

Reinhard (Reiney) married Mariann (Brite) in 1944. They are the parents of seven children: Judy (Schiffli), Jerry, Jim, Jeannie (Smith), John, Joann (Okoniewski) and Joe. As of 2018, they had 26 grandchildren and 39 great-grandchildren. Out of the 240 Selking International Trucks employees, there are twelve family members working to continue Reiney's legacy.

Applicants must show a connection to the Selking International Trucks & Service group (employee or employee's spouse/child/dependent). Priority will be given to students planning to major (or current students) in the diesel mechanics field of student. Scholarships may be awarded to students seeking two- or four-year degrees or post-secondary vocational training.

Essay Topic: Paul's Nine Commitments. How does one of these Commitments relate to you?

1. Seek God's friendship, fellowship, and guidance. Our intimacy with God – His highest priority for us – determines the impact of our lives. Truly, all of the other commitments are driven by this first commitment.
2. Develop effective relationships. Strive to develop and maintain your relationships. Life is all about relationships, and true greatness is achieved by making a difference in other people's lives. Trust is the glue of life, holding families, organizations, cultures, and relationships together.
3. Treat everyone with honor, love, dignity, and respect. If we did this, we would solve most of the world's problems! Respect and care for others is so important. Caring is the foundation of just about everything. If you possess deep-seated caring, it is evidenced in all you do.
4. Be self-disciplined and self-controlled. According to the experts, this is a common trait among the lives of all great leaders. You can keep your life in balance by adopting these four habits:
 - Physical: Get at least 8 hours of sleep a night.
 - Mental: Keep learning. It's been said that "leaders are readers," so Paul read 1 ½ hours a day.
 - Family: Make time with your family a priority.
 - Spiritual: Keep connected with your spiritual side. You are ever growing, changing, developing, improving, and becoming the person you know you can be.
5. Do the right things right. If you make great decisions, you will live a great life. Before making a decision, particularly a large one (or before we give advice to assist someone else in making a decision), it is wise for each of us to take time in the classroom of silence to listen to the gentle voice within. Your values drive your behavior. Remember, your actions impact many more people than just yourself.
6. Be a positive, passionate, and enthusiastic person. Paul found this Charles Swindoll quote to be fantastic, "Life is 10% what happens to you and 90% how you react to it." We can react best in life by being positive, enthusiastic, and passionate.
7. Never compromise your integrity. One of the greatest things you can say about a person is that he/she has integrity. "Live with integrity, character, and passion." Paul believed so strongly in this that it is a core value of the Best-One organization.
8. Plan for tomorrow today. Ask God to guide you in your planning. An idea isn't worth much unless you have a plan of action to carry it out. "An idea is worth $1.00, but a plan of action is worth $1,000,000."
9. Live now, and live it wide open! This statement just simply speaks for itself. Don't just live your life, but live it to the greatest of your ability.
