Traditional Student's Application for the Chelsea Kay Hart Scholarship
Heritage High School, Hoagland, Indiana
(through the) Adams County Community Foundation (ACCF)

This application is for traditional students (graduating high school seniors) applying for the ACCF / Chelsea K. Hart Scholarship.

This scholarship opportunity is in loving memory of Chelsea K. Hart, age 15. Chelsea, (January 12, 1995 - April 8, 2010), was an active teenager who enjoyed their family pool, 4-wheeling, and participating on the softball and volleyball teams. After a vehicle accident (April 6), it was determined Chelsea was to experience the advantage of making God her #1. She was in a position to confidently start a new beginning. In addition, her generous gift as an organ-donor to three individuals allowed them and their families a new beginning. Chelsea is deeply missed by her parents and brothers: Bill & Karen and Jon and Ben Hart.

The successful scholar(s) will show evidence of their lifestyle as it is compared to Chelsea Kay Hart: graduating high school senior who demonstrates the traits of defined faith, notable integrity, sense of purpose, strong morals and helping others. Priority is given (but not limited to) to the student who intends to attain a 4-year degree.
